RE: Personnel Announcement- August 17, 2016

After 39 years of dedicated service, in a wide range of assignments, Jim Beckman has made the decision to retire, effective December 31, 2016.

Effective September 1, Dennis P Lasker will assume the duties of President, in addition to his continuing responsibility for the overall Company performance.

During this transition period, Jim will continue to contribute to the Crucible success story, focusing on the evaluation of potential business opportunities as well as assisting in the strategic planning process.
